

Terrible Ring Exposed

Group So Strong
It Sparked Peru
Revolt Last Year

NEW YORK, Aug. 20.—(AP)—A vast illicit drug ring—so powerful that it sparked an abortive revolution in Peru and involved United Nations action—was exposed here yesterday with the arrest of the alleged ring-leader.

Authorities called the arrest the first high point in an international crack-down on a huge smuggling operation which, it is alleged, $500,000-a-month cocaine trade between the United States and Peru.

American, Peruvian and UN authorities joined a massive drive to smash the ring, said to have used narcotics profits to arm insurgents in Peru in an attempt to seize control of the country.

STORY OF INTRIGUE

The story of political intrigue and secret deals with large-scale drug traffic was unfolded with the seizure yesterday of the alleged ring-leader, Eduardo Balcarce, 48, of New York City. He is a naturalized United States citizen of Peruvian descent.

More than 80 persons, some of them prominent business men, have been arrested in Peru and Argentina, and 50 or 60 others in the United States are believed connected with the ring. Joseph E. Martin, assistant United States attorney, said the agency apparently tried recently to expand operations to Italy through

Girl Assault Charge Laid

CALGARY, Aug. 20.—(CP)—Robert M. Hammen, 35, of Calgary, was arrested in a downtown beer parlor last night and charged with indecently assaulting a nine-year-old girl at St. George's Island earlier in the evening.

Hammen's arrest was the result of quick thinking by Joseph Kover of Calgary, who was in the bar and heard the girl to the bar and then contacted police.

Accused was to appear in police court today.

The young girl suffered a severe shock but was not seriously injured physically.

The youngster was playing at the west end of the island with three young boys when the boys took them into the bushes, and then ordered the boys to leave. A few minutes later, the girl was seen running down the road sobbing.

She was stopped by Donald Charki of Calgary who called police.

Police Find Hideout But Henderson Gone

WINNIPEG, Aug. 20.—(CP)—A woman who revealed to police the Winnipeg hideout of Donald Henderson of Clive, Alta., wanted on a murder charge in Calgary, gave some details today of the fugitive's four days in her midtown rooming house.

Henderson received a warrant charging him with the murder of 21-year-old Yvonne Levesque nine days ago in a Calgary tourist camp, reached the rooming house here Sunday night and vanished in the early hours of Wednesday morning.

He fled guilty yesterday before Magistrate T. O. Gore Hickman, who pointed out to him that he had no legal now.

The lady who asked that her name and address be withheld to avoid causing other roomers discomfort, was identified yesterday as Henderson, 21, of 1028 10th Street, who had been accompanied by sunny spells and with temperatures much the same as at present.

"I don't care to go to the police station on pictures," he muttered. "But am just giving everybody fair warning."

HERE'S FISHING THE EASY WAY

OTTAWA, Aug. 20.—(CP)—David Seguin, proprietor of a boathouse on the Ottawa river, said yesterday that his clientele had unexpected business last night. He wasn't even fishing when a five-foot sturgeon, weighing 50 pounds, leaped from the water and jumped at his feet on the boathouse.

PERMIT ISSUED

City Escapes Long Arm Of Own Law

It's all legal now. No longer can a bootleg building charge be laid at the city's corporate door.

A disconsolate building inspector won't have to appear in police court and give evidence that his work is being done. City of Edmonton is building a building without a building permit, contrary to by-law number so-and-so.

Yesterday afternoon the building and planning department issued a $25,000 permit for erection of the new frame bleachers Clarke Stadium, a job already well on the way to completion.

Vancouver Mayor Charles Thompson said the caravan would "spearhead attention to a job you want done."

Season Extended On Upland Birds

Guns Must Be Plugged For Not More Than 3 Shells

Alberta hunters of migratory and upland birds are being told to take their time this year.

The government has laid down a regulation making it unlawful to carry a shotgun capable of holding more than three shells at one time in the province.

Hunters must plug after their shotguns says the government, or suffer the consequences.

At the same time, it was announced that the seasons on migratory and upland birds have been extended.

The province has been divided into three zones for the hunting of upland birds, with two zones in the case of upland birds.

DATES AND ZONES

Here are the dates and zones for the hunting of migratory birds:

1-North of the Athabasca River and Township 72, September 10 to November 15, inclusive.

2-South of the Athabasca River and Township 72 and north of highways 11 and 12, through Rocky Mountain House, Red Deer, Lethbridge, South Central, Sept. 17 to November 12, inclusive.

3-South of Highways 11 and 12, September 24 to November 19.

There have been few changes in the bag limits. They are:

Ducks-Eight per day; in possession, 10; for the season, 50.

Geese-Five per day, in possession, 10; for the season, 15.

Hails and Coots-10 per day, in possession, 20; for the season, 50.

Wilson's Snipe-Five per day, in possession, 10; for the season, 50.

PROTECTION

The shooting of migratory birds has been prohibited on any area lying within two miles of the edge of protection areas and fishing industry production.

This is indicated in the provincial department of industries and labor statistical report issued today.

The report shows the following figures of 1949 in comparison to the same period of 1948:

Canned milk production increased 40 per cent in quantity and 23 per cent in value, with $120,563 cases worth $384,984 produced this year. Last year, 96,805 cases worth $97,072 were produced.

Coal production jumped 22 per cent from $284,518 tons to $345,947 tons to $345,947.

Oil production increased 112 per cent in quantity (7,578,865 barrels this year compared to 3,568,489 barrels last year) and 20 per cent in value per barrel, from $11,633.04 to $21,713.536.

Increased building demand sent up the price of cement products from $964.50 to $1,856.468 for a 92 per cent increase and accounted for a 20 per cent increase in tonnage of lime products. Value of lime products jumped from $31,588 to $35,019.

Forestry production showed a four per cent decrease in both quantity and value.

For industry produced 1,906,393 pelts last year, but produced 1,984,392 this year, for a 97 per cent increase. Value was up from $1,179,690 to $2,274,769.

Meanwhile packing plant production slipped 30 per cent in quantity and 37 per cent in value. Flours, mills and flour products only 990,764 barrels this year compared to 1,214,317 barrels last year, and this accounted for a seven per cent decrease in value.

Fish products took a big drop in value with a 52 per cent decrease. This year 1,774,642 pounds of Alberta caught fish were produced.

Fish 860, compared to 1,784,960 pounds sold for $241,988 last year.

COCK PHEASANTS

Game limits on upland game birds north of the North Saskatchewan River and highway 16 are as follows:

Sharp-tailed Grouse, 10 per day, 50 for the season.

Ruffed Grouse, 5 per day, 25 for the season.

Spruce Partridge, 5 per day, 25 for the season.

Sharptailed Partridge, 5 per day, 25 for the season.

Ring-neck Cock Pheasants, 3 per day, 25 for the season.

The street was littered with spilled milk and broken bottles. Mrs. Craig's husband said the team was packing up and hit the curb, overturning the rig.

For about half-an-hour Mrs. Craig and others watched and talked until the mess was cleaned up.

When she returned home she found an inch or more of water on her kitchen floor.

She had forgotten to turn a tap off.

Albertans Buy 9,749 Autos

Albertans are driving nearly 3,000 more new cars this year than last. Total value of vehicles in 1949 was $6,731,000 more than they spent for the same purpose last year.

Statistics released by the provincial government today showed that 9,749 new cars were purchased by Albertans during the first five months of 1949. Last year, 7,103 new cars were bought.

Amount spent on new car purchases during the first five months of 1949 was $20,893,378 compared with $14,652,600 in the same period last year.

• Thoughts Affect Course of Life

If Thinking Habits Do Not Change, Neither Will Person

The Bulletin continues today publication of a condensation of the widely-acclaimed book, "A Guide to Confident Living" by Dr. Norman Vincent Peale. Dr. Peale, noted Protestant clergyman, has been minister of Marble Collegiate Church in New York since 1932. He has achieved impressive results as a pastor by forging a link between religion and psychiatry to gain happiness and success for thousands of people. Dr. Peale's principles for confident living will appear in 17 daily chapters. (Copyright 1946, Prentice-Hall Inc.)

By Norman Vincent Peale
CHAPTER 17

Your life is determined by the kind of thoughts you habitually think.

If, however, your thoughts do not change, you will follow your old life pattern as the following story shows.

A hotel manager told me that a barbers supply association had a convention in his hotel. The organization had a very enterprising publicity agent. He went down to the street and found the most unpromising situations. In human nature he could locate—an unkempt, unshaven, drunken, sad creature.

This down-and-outer was taken to the hotel where they gave him a haircut; dressed him in a good suit of clothes; gave him nice linen. They decked him out in a rakish looking overcoat and cane and spats. When he emerged from this refurbishing, he was a marvelous example of the barber's art.

Doubt Crosses His Mind

A doubt crossed the mind of the hotel manager. "I wonder if he will come back at 8 o'clock next morning when his man did not show up. Nor did he appear all day. So the manager, following a hunch, went after the same street from which the man had come and found him dead drunk sleeping on some newspapers. His fine clothes rumpled and soiled.

The manager's hunch was a most disillusioning experience. The barbers may be able to clean him up on the outside, but the bones of statistics already getting ready to make broads and most thorough scrutiny the Canadian society has been exposed to since Carter apportioned his first census.

Herbert Marshall, head of the bureau, figures the machine will cut months off the time it normally takes to tabulate, analyze and publish the millions of information a census digs up.

Developed by a United States firm, International Business Machines Corporation, it sorts, counts and prints all at the same time. The first one was brought to Ottawa some months ago in great secrecy—anyone seeing it had to sign a non-disclosure agreement. At present the patent rights weren't complete.

Another factor in it will be a new electronic statistical machine that will keep tabs with astounding ease on just about everything but your marital status.

"Lotteries in Canada are forbidden by law (see 236 of the Criminal Code) and that has taken care of the situation here," Allard said. He said "priv" programs in Canada called for skill on the part of the contestants and did not contain the elements of chance, thus placing them within the law.

"It has been stated by some men, our life is what our thoughts make of it, then follows naturally that a joyful existence is predicated upon joyful thinking.

Finds A Religious

"In that prison we had very little to read. Anything in print that came our way was devoured by the Americans. There was not much for us from myself, which was the greatest prison I was ever in."

What had happened to him? That a tremendous change had taken place in his life. At the precise moment when his emotional and mental attitudes were favorable, a book able to affect his thoughts came into his hands. As spiritual conversion took place and thinking changed.

Another factor in the process by which changing your thoughts of the practice of theology, by a desire to live a happy life, he must first practice thinking happy thoughts. If, as has been stated by wise men, our life is what our thoughts make of it, then follows naturally that a joyful existence is predicated upon joyful thinking.

Suddenly quicker than I can tell you about it, I felt happy inside of my heart and everything changed.

Stating A Potent Truth

This thing called spiritual experience plus the practicing of the simple techniques of the Christian faith produces the thought changes which lead to happiness and success.

By changing your thoughts you can also change situations and changing some situations a requisite to success and happiness. You can even make you feel better physically. It can help unlock your muscles. It can release energy. In short, it has the power to make you content, to get your whole personality, body, mind and spirit energized.

Learn the skill of living. Practice your religion. Think joy, not gloom.

A Stimulating Experience

On an early morning train running from Cedar Rapids to Chicago, I happened to meet the famous Negro singer, Roland Hayes.

We had what was for me, at least, one of the most stimulating conversational experiences in my life. The talk turned to religion, the consuming interest of Mr. Hayes.

Without question, he is not only one of the truly great singers of our time, but one of our noblest spiritual geniuses. In Christ, he seems to be the presidents and kings and before acclaiming audiences when all things are become new." (II Corinthians 5:17.)

Labor Opposes 'Peg Fare Boost

WINNIPEG, Aug. 20—(CP)—Twenty-four people died of suffocation and others are seriously ill following the stalling of a train in a 100-mile-long tunnel near Chikyong, about 100 miles southeast of here.

The hold-up occurred when a coupling of the six-coach passenger train came loose.

The company has filed an application asking for permission to increase fares on street cars and buses to three tickets for 25 cents. Two tickets now sell for 15 cents.

The company is also asking elimination of the $7.50 monthly transportation ticket.

Representatives of the Winnipeg Labor Council and the Winnipeg Trade and Labor Council said the two organizations would oppose any increase.

EDMONTON BULLETIN, Saturday, Aug. 20, 1948

ITALIAN mechanical engineer, John Brondello, waves from his single-engine plane in which he will attempt a non-stop transatlantic flight from Lisbon to New York. He plans to fly by Clipper to London and his plane will be crated and flown by cargo plane after him. He will reassemble the small plane in London before proceeding to Lisbon.

He said to him, "By a strange set of circumstances you have been made into the form of a man. The hotel manager was impressed after the conversation in the men's room."

He said to him, "I am going to give you a job in another hotel. I operated and I am going to back you and we are going to make a success of you. When will you go to work?"

The man replied, "Suppose we make it tomorrow morning at 8 o'clock?"

He said, "Oh, you don't understand, so I will tell you."

New Machine To Speed Up Census Work

By DOUGLAS HOW

OTTAWA, Aug. 20—(CP)—The 1951 census is nearly two years off, but the bureau of statistics already is getting ready to make broad and most thorough scrutiny the Canadian society has been exposed to since Carter apportioned his first census.

A key factor in it will be a new electronic statistical machine that will keep tabs with astounding ease on just about everything but your marital status.

Herbert Marshall, head of the bureau, figures the machine will cut months off the time it normally takes to tabulate, analyze and publish the millions of information a census digs up.

Developed by a United States firm, International Business Machines Corporation, it sorts, counts and prints all at the same time.

The first one was brought to Ottawa some months ago in great secrecy—anyone seeing it had to sign a non-disclosure agreement. At present the patent rights weren't complete.

Baptist Youth Ask Full Loyalty to God

STOCKHOLM, Aug. 20.—Christianity should not be identified with any political ideology nor be reduced to a mere policy of social reform, young Baptists of 24 countries decided in a resolution adopted here during the closing sessions of the third World Congress of Baptist Youth.

The resolution declared that the cause of Christ stands above all other things, and the principles of the Kingdom of God must have precedence over all other loyalties.

Secretary General of the World Alliance, Dr. Arnold Ohrn, general secretary of the Baptist World Alliance, said that several special sessions were being observed at the World Baptist Congress in Cleveland, Ohio, next July for action on suggestions from the Stockholm youth congress.

QUESTIONS INVOLVED Among the questions involved in the election of a new youth committee was the possible revision in the constitution of the World Alliance.

Dr. T. G. Dunning, of England, congress chairman, urged as many national delegations as possible to attend the Cleveland sessions to assist in taking steps to make youth work more effective.

Greetings from Dr. C. Oscar Johnson, pastor of the Third Baptist Church of Los Angeles, president of the Baptist World Alliance, were dedicated at the congress by Dr. Townley Lord of London, All-England vice-president.

Dr. Louis said that in the current of mistrust must be torn down and replaced by the kind of interchange which created the new Baptist Seminary in Switzerland, and that the British money, British brains, and the hearts of the whole world."

CLOSING THEME The closing congress theme, "youth evangelism in modern times," was presented by Joel Sorenson of Sweden, general secretary of the committee. Declaratory Christians have been placed in a position of defense by secular

Canada, Britain Swap Air Rights

New Agreement Guarantees Fifth Freedom of the Air

OTTAWA, Aug. 20.—(CP)—Freedom of the air was given a boost today when Canada and the United Kingdom signed a reciprocal agreement on Atlantic and Pacific air-line routes.

The agreement, replacing and adding to one previously in effect, includes for the first time between two countries the principle of a fifth freedom of the air, covering intermediate traffic rights.

At a brief ceremony, Transport Minister C. D. Howe and Sir Alexander Clutterbuck, U.K. High Commissioner, signed the agreement today in Mr. Cheshire's office.

CARIBBEAN RIGHTS

One item in the agreement gives Trans-Canada Air Lines rights to fly from Britain to the British Guiana on its route to Bermuda and the British Caribbean Colonies.

The fifth freedom is included on this route and gives TCA the right to carry traffic from intermediate points in a third country. For example, TCA can carry traffic on this route from Tegu and St. Petersburg on this route.

The Tampa-St. Petersburg landing rights were extended to Canada under the agreement with the United States.

In return the United Kingdom will have similar rights in Canada from its present position of a 50-50 call, although they will come under existing arrangements under which the U.K. agrees not to exercise the right to the Caribbean before 1951.

Inside Hollywood

By Bob Thomas

HOLLYWOOD—(AP)—Mack Sennett says the feminine beach costume in 10 years may be lipstick, rouge and perhaps a hair ribbon. That's all, brother.

It isn't necessary to look far to see that women, if not men, too, are headed in the direction of nudism, remarked the long-time industry world's end.

Sennett, who was born in Den-ville, Que., can bear some of the responsibility for the trend. His trademark, the "Sennett" shorts, showed more of the feminine form than was generally seen in those days. Even though his beauties don't seem to think they were either born or bred in the Tad-Mo-mer. "They created a furor," he recalled. "Some people wanted to have me put in jail."

INDIRECT EXPOSURE

"I'm not the only one who can remember when police would raid nudist camps to measure the number of inches of leg exposed by those 'daring' suits. If more than a few inches were in evidence, the girls would be arrested for indecent exposure."

Police now would need yardsticks, he observed.

Some of the more hardy women in New York and even Boston were wearing sun suits on downtown streets. He cited the plunging neckline and bare midriff as more evidence of the movement toward nudism.

The movie maker is an advocate of nudism, but says it may have its point.

It is that the sheep population is dropping steadily, not only in Alberta, but across the western dominion, and unless action is taken to rid the country of the predators, the agricultural economy will be come once unbalanced."

Historic Papers Lost, Commission is Told

OTTAWA, Aug. 20.—(CP)—Important historical documents—some of them irreplaceable symbols of Canada's growth—have been hidden in trust companies, destroyed in stores and sold as junk, Canadian Historical Association officers said yesterday.

Appearing before the Royal Commission on Arts and Science development, they called for the granting of greater powers to the public archive, now hampered by regulations restricting its gathering of a complete record of Canada's historical progress.

SOLD AS JUNK

The association's president, Prof. A. L. Burt, Toronto Rhodes scholar teaching at the University of Minnesota, said papers which told of Ontario's early history were sold for junk in English cities even before the First World War.

Records of the Canadian Lands Company, they had been preserved for centuries in London and even though these were well known, it was thought that they would be turned over to Canada. Prof. Burt arrived overseas to find they had been cleaned up by a paper-scraping machine.

He was certain that documents of early settlers, companies and various other enterprises were "now a lot of light" on Canadian history, but these documents, like the companies, had passed out of existence.

Some of these documents, he recalled, were later destroyed in a

The association officers recommended that the archives be granted more creative power and funds to give greater attention to private collections of papers.

In some fields of history, private collections of papers were more important than public records.

The first publication to be issued under the title of "magazine" was "The Gentleman's Magazine," published in 1731 in England.

THE "ABBINGTON"—Reclaimed brick painted white and Cape Cod design conspire to achieve this charming design. Study of the "Abbington" plan shows seven spacious rooms, far more than are confined within such conservative exterior dimensions without a doubt. The kitchen is most efficiently planned and has an ample space for a breakfast room. The first floor bedrooms may also be used as a den. The working drawings show an ingenious arrangement of closet and wall space. Cubage is 23,000 feet which indicates real economy. This is another in the Bulleit series of practical homes by Harold C. Is Alberta going to adopt a leaky roof attitude towards crop failure this year?

Only a clear-cut statement from the government on the plan for rehabilitation and aid to drought and hail stricken areas of the province is likely to provide a "no" answer to the question.

"Leaky roof" is probably a fairly apt phrase because provincial authorities are now in the position of the man who didn't fix his leaky roof when the weather was fine, because it didn't leak then, and couldn't fix it when the weather won't last because he couldn't work in the rain.

For almost ten years now, there has been no need for government intervention in crop failure areas. During that time the government, perhaps rightly, perhaps wrongly, formulated no definite policy to cover the eventuality.

This year, despite the fact that serious drought damage was obvious as early as two months ago and since then yields have been further reduced, there is still no statement of crop failure policy forthcoming.

Across the provincial border, Saskatchewan Agriculture Minister I. C. Nollelt has already announced measures to help drought-stricken farmers.

It is true, of course, that in Saskatchewan dry weather caused more extensive damage than that taining livestock production is being discouraged from killing off their cattle by an education campaign against the possible use of other fodder types, including even Russian thistle.

It seems likely too that a rescue plan will be made by the government to bring feed from other parts of the province to dried out areas.

Meanwhile, hundreds of farmers are planning on earning money by helping harvest the crops of luckier farmers in more prosperous areas. As others have done in the past, the provincial government assistance program, have taken their hay-making machinery to hay-surplus areas and shipped the hay back to their own farms.

There is no suggestion that the Alberta government does not want to provide as valuable a system of aid for drought stricken farmers here.

But whatever the system it should be formulated now, delayed until farmers in dried out and haled out areas are desperate for immediate help.

Not when the roof is leaking.

Old Scrolls Pre-Date Our Old Testament

By DOUGLAS LIVERSIDGE
LONDON, Aug. 20—(Reuters)—Some of the Old Testament scrolls found in a cave near Ain Feshka, south of Jericho, now are known to be 1,200 years older than the text on which the present Old Testament is based.

This disclosure was made in London by G. Lankaster Harding, chief curator of antiquities for the Hashemite Jordan (Trans-Jordan), before he returned to Amman.

THEY AGREE

The date of the scrolls, said Harding, has been established by the fact that they were found in jars made in the second century B.C.

American translators working on foot in the Jordan valley, that text agreed to an astonishing degree, with the present Old Testament, he said. The Old Testament was taken from what is known as the Hebrew Massoretic text, generally ascribed to scholars to the 10th century A.D.

Harding said that one of the scrolls—a hitherto unknown apocryphal book, now called by the Americans the "Book of the Children of Darkness and the Children of Light"—may turn out to be an account of an actual war involving an unknown Jewish sect, perhaps the Essenes.

HUNDREDS OF PIECES

With Father De Vaux, director of L'Ecole Biblique et Archéologique Francaise of Jerusalem, and assistants from the Palestine archaeological museum, Harding visited the cave last March. For three weeks, partly excavated the site with penknives and fingers. Bigger instruments would have damaged the small fragments of inscribed parchment strewn about with shreds, linen and debris.

Later, after the last light of a paraffin pressure lamp, the workers recovered hundreds of pieces of parchment. No fragment bigger than the end of a pencil was left behind.

CHIP SHOTS

By Hugh Watson

Some weeks back Jim McCurdy, since departed from the Bulletin sports staff and vowing to go straight, got a mad on at the lack of enthusiasm among Edmonton's junior golfers.

James, a likeable fellow at all times, wrote an "open letter" to city professionals urging a general shake-up which would aid in promoting junior golf.

The idea was a good one and worth working on, however, since that time the golfers have dropped low and the snake's tummy.

Disregarding the Juniors for a moment, we'd like to concentrate on the entire provincial set-up. Alberta's Juniors, Canada left for John N.B. in a blaze of glory, flash bulbs popping and scribes with pencils poised eagerly awaiting each spoken word from the provincial team.

LOOKING OTHER WAY

On the return journey and everyone looking the other way. Apparently the golf crowd was taught a lesson. When the women's inter-provincial team was announced at the time of great commotion — just a few remarks of "Too bad," or "So what!"

Gazing over scores received from Vancouver at the halfway point, we find Alberta once more fighting hard to stay out of last place.

Aggregate scores were a whopping 61-over-par 372. Only way for Alberta to stay in the tournament sometime in the near future with only Manitoba as opposition.

This would undoubtedly be a case of "either/or." The Manitobans are going home to good either, edging out the locals for basement honors with 376.

Only bright spot on the local picture last week was the blinding in all of Calgary. The team is made up of three golfers from the southern city, among them Paddy Arnold, provincial champion.

Manitoba's show respects alike, nine-over-par 372 yesterday to pace the local entry. Next came Mrs. G. Fuller with an 89, while Mr. Max Bell carded a 91. Edmonton's lone entry, Mr. Tommy Vickers sneaked in with a 102.

But who knows? Maybe they'll get hot today and come in with a 370.

SURE THING DEPT.—Pat Flecher of Saskatoon will be a starter in the Alberta Open at Mayfair Sept. 3 and 5. G. Clark, provincial president of Alberta Golf Association, is combining holidays with business by making a tour of the Saskatchewan golf centers.

He is trying to line up all the talent available to help win the $2,000 Open. Among one of the elusive men being tracked down in Minneapolis was Bill Uriel.

Uriel, winner of the $2,000 Winipeg Open, is a hard man to track. Letters seem to have received no reply.

WORD NOT DEFINITE

Bud Ward, Great Falls, Montana, professional hasn't given a definite reply on his status. The former Pacific Northwest king of the tournaments is currently in the tournament trail, recently edging Vancouver's Bill Mawhinney in the Trail, B.C. Open.

Martelli brothers lay the Eaton Trophy on the line again Sunday at Highlands. Dave Dixon, Red Deer, pro, and provincial junior champion, Bill Martelli will be back for another try.

Burns and Henry have defended the cup eight times this year. Blugent is slated for Sept. 11 at Red Deer when a team from Calgary will attempt to grab the cup.

Country club men's two-ball foursome competition will te-off Sunday at 9 a.m. Post entries will be accepted.

Hero of the Yankees' win was Tommie Henrich. First, he singled home two runs in the sixth to snap the final run-tie.

Reading of Riot Act Ignites Phils' Spark

NEW YORK, Aug. 20.—(CP)—Early this week there were reports that manager Eddie Sawyer had read the last nail-biting riot act to his Philadelphia Phillies. It was reported that, among other things, he told them they better start hustling or else.

Whether the reports had any basis or not, the Phillies have been undefeated since then.

First they trudged right into Brooklyn to see down the then-leading Dodgers three straight.

GIANT-KILLERS

Last night they went home and walloped New York Giants 7-1. And to make the victory all the more satisfying, the victim of 13-game attack was pitcher Dave Koslo. Koslo hadn't beaten Koosie since he entered the major leagues in 1946.

Meanwhile Dodgers were beating Boston Braves 6-4 and Pittsburgh Pirates trounced St. Louis Cardinals 8-2. This result turned the tide in favor of the National being deadlocked again at the top of the National league.

In the other National game Chicago Cubs defeated Cincinnati Reds 5-2.

Waitkus Returns

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 20.—(AP)—Marshall Waitkus appeared in his baseball uniform for the first time since he was shot June 12 at 23,000 gathered at Shibe Park's first baseball game in 1946. The team he was with, the Philadelphia Phillies, first baseman, and his teammates saluted him.

Speed Argument Hits Disc Sales

Dealers Report Turnovers Down Nearly 50 Per Cent

Record sales in the U.S. and Canada have been considerably down during the past several months and a lot of people say it's due to the 364 question of which record speed is going to end up on top.

Certainly the average record buyer isn't anxious to sink his money in 78 records when they're going to be discontinued.

And city music stores are feeling the bite.

One record shop proprietor commented this week that he wouldn't be surprised if sales in 78's were down as much as 50 per cent in the city.

In the meantime, the various companies are plugging their start for all they're worth. Victor is doing pretty well with the same records he's been carrying for years, and Decca is sticking by the 78s until

A few days ago I attended a meeting of Catholic clergymen and laymen who plan a great crusade for the restoration of family prayer.

Farm Produce Shows Slump In Alberta

Farming in Alberta is having a serious slump in comparison to the year last year.

This is indicated in the statistical report issued today by the provincial department of industries and labor.

Only wheat farming showed an increase in both production and value.

For the 11 months ending May 31, 1948, Alberta farms produced 91,021,309 bushels of wheat valued at $21,008,510. Amount of wheat produced in the 11 months ending May 31, 1947, was 91,021,293 bushels. This had a value of $21,021,293, or 16 per cent less than this year's production.

UP 10 PER CENT

Though production of other crops was up 10 per cent for the first 11 months of 1948 compared to the corresponding period in 1947, lower prices caused an 11 per cent decrease in the value.

Farmers marketed 51,886 bushels of barley, coarse grain, worth $2,478,475, from January to May, 1948.

This year they sold 57,012,300 bushels but received only $46,750.00 for the same.

Similar situation existed in the butter market in the first five months of 1948 provincial farmers sold 9,651,160 pounds of butter for $2,460,000. The same year last year, 9,717,686 pounds for $2,576,490.

In early this year accounts for the eight per cent decrease in returns.

CHEESE SLUMPS

Producers slumped both in quantity and value during the comparative period.

From January to the end of May, 1948 the number of cheese marketed was 366,245 which was 10 per cent less than the same period the year before.

The price marketed was $88,528 pounds of cheese were sold for $8,090.098.

Export number of cattle, calves, sheep and lambs and hogs declined in each case this year compared to the same period last year.

But higher prices aided farmers exporting cattle and brought a 13 per cent increase in actual value. The province marketed 100,164 head of cattle for $13,565,795 this year compared to 103,615 head $12,084,770 last year.

CALVES

Number of calves exported slipped from 35,208 last year to 22,601 this year for a 32 per cent decrease. With prices higher than last year, the increase in cash returns was only 25 per cent, dropping from $6,956,650 to $2,962,000.

Sheep and lambs showed an increase of 10 per cent in value. Sheep and lambs and hogs declined 20 per cent in value.

Hogs were down 21 per cent in number and ten per cent in value.

Grain exports were up 21,000,000 bushels compared to 28,250 for $1,192,773 last year.

SHOPPING GUIDE

Gay Scottish Design On Kiddies' Sweaters

By Bee Thrifty

My vote for the cutest kid in the kindergarten crowd will go to the little lady who wears a figured twin sweater on school-opening day.

Virgin wool short-sleeved pullovers and long-sleeved cardigans may be bought separately.

Considering they're imported from Scotland, $2.95 for the pullover and $3.49 for the cardigan is as reasonable as can be.

The hulk of our foreign investments were hurled into the common cause in 1940 and 1941. We emerged victorious but bankrupt. In fact, we're damned now," the paper says.

STRONG MEDICINE

THE Teenie Weenies were quite divided in their views on the matter of bringing up children. Some believed that it was wrong to punish children for naughty deeds and others thought that a bit of old-fashioned paddling was quite necessary at times. This division of thought was due to the gadding Nipper, one of the Teenie Weenies, who was constantly running away. This half-ounce mite could vanish like magic and he usually took his small brother, Zero, with him.

Patient explaining did no good. Mild scolding had no effect and tying the child up with thread was useless, for Nipper became an expert in untying knots. For a time the children were shut up in the glass fruit jar which the Teenie Weenies used for a greenhouse, but their mother thought that would break the babies' spirit. So that effective method of keeping the youngsters at home was given up. In order to keep them from straying, one of the older Teenie Weenies had to be constantly watching the children. That made extra work for some of the Teenie Weenies and caused many unpleasant words to be spoken. Finally the children ran off at a most unfortunate time and the matter of bringing up children was worked out to the satisfaction of all the little folk.

A big tomato had ripened in the Teenie Weenie garden and the village was as busy as a beehive. The tomato had to be hauled to the village, cut into small pieces with Teenie Weenie axes and cooked for canning. While the men worked on the tomato, the women washed and scalded 195 ten- and twenty-drop jars. When the work began, Nipper was securely tied up out in the yard. But in no time he freed himself and he and Zero set off for the woods.

When the children were missed, all work had to stop while the Teenie Weenies went in search of them. Skippy, the chipmunk, joined the hunt and his keen nose picked up the scent of the two runaways. They were found asleep under a big bush.

"If that was my kid," said the Old Soldier, "I'd warm his sittin' down place. The baby is too young to do anything but try to follow his brother wherever he goes. That Nipper is the one who needs to be taught a good lesson."

Nipper's mother gave the Old Soldier a knowing glance, sat down on a small mushroom, turned Nipper over her knees and paddled his rear with a will.

Her young son, taken by surprise, cried lustily and Zero wept in sympathy. But Nipper has lost his interest in travel and likes to play at home.
